Monthly Newsletter

A community united by faith in God and love to the neighbor

Dear Friends,

Is your cup half full? Or half empty?

This fall we've been journeying as a church with the topic of gratitude. Does being intentionally grateful, counting your blessings really make a difference in your life or in the life of the world? Can a heart of gratitude be intentionally cultivated? Does giving thanks to God and remembering and naming all that God has given us and done for us, change the way we experience the world?

I imagine most of us would agree that it is important to give thanks, and that it does make a difference, but that doesn't mean we always remember to. This is the reason that we are celebrating this Season of Gratitude as a community. Sometimes we need reminders!

Have you ever been in a group of people complaining about their spouse or their job or just people and life in general and you've found yourself pulled into this negative sphere? All of a sudden you are offering your own complaints right along with them? Human beings have an incredible ability to affect one another and our experience of the world.

The same thing can happen when we enter a positive sphere of gratitude and thanksgiving. As we are exposed to people who give thanks for what they have, and approach the world with a grateful heart we cannot help but be affected by that energy. And so in the same way as we welcome more gratitude and appreciation into our own hearts we will in turn make others in the world more happy and grateful!

Swedenborg taught that the church in the world starts with the individual. We each are a church, and so when we praise the Lord on an internal level we reflect that praise out. Don't ever think for a minute that your life and your faith do not have any importance in the world; because it does!

Every time you say thank you, every time you look upon a meal with gratitude, or a sunset, or a friend, or the work of the day, or the rest and peacefulness of the night you are praising God. Every time you remember with joy and appreciation something very small or something very big that God has done you, you are offering a blessing to the world around you.

Happy thanksgiving everyone! May we all be truly filled with gratitude for all that God has done.

"This is the day that the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it!"

Many blessings,

Rev. Sage

FNC Annual Meeting

Sunday, November 7th

after worship

AND

Maine Association Annual Meeting

with Communion service

Saturday, November 13th

at 11:30am

Rev. Sage would like to invite you this fall to the parsonage for a Gratitude Gathering Pot-Luck Supper

There are still three evenings to choose from and a sign up sheet at the church.

Wed. Nov. 3rd, Thurs. Nov. 11th, or

Wed. Nov. 17th.

Each gathering will be from 6-8pm, and will include a reading on the subject of gratitude, time for sharing and reflection and most importantly, time for food and fellowship with church friends new and old. Invite along friends, family or people in the community you'd like to share your church with.

Reminder!!

Turn clocks back before bed on Saturday, Nov. 6th

Church Report

Passages

We've lost a few friends recently. Charlotte Lord, Clara Estes, and Anna Fox have entered the spiritual world. We pray for the peace and comfort of the Lord to be with their families during this difficult time.

The Trustees

The Trustees' next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, November 2, 2010 at 7:00 pm. The meetings are open to all, but you should contact the Chair prior to the meeting to get an item on the agenda. Also, please speak to any of the Trustees with your questions, concerns, compliments or complaints. We are here to serve you.
